WANTS TO WHIP MITCHELL. Corbett's First Preference the Englishman ; Second, Peter Jackson, (By associated PRESS.)

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—Champion Jim Corbett Chicago oct 17.—Champion Jim Corbett is in Chicago to attend the World's Fair dedication, and as a side issue he is playing "Gentleman Jack" at the Haymarket.

Although not at this moment ready to shy his easter into the ring he expresses a desire to get a chance at Mitchell. "I am," he said, "especially anxious to meet Mitchell, and profer his game to that of any man living.

"He insulted me once and I am anxious to face him in the ring. I feel confident that I can whip him.

"Walle I would not be willing to cancel my theatrical engagement, which runs into summer, I will make all possible concessions to tring on a light. I will post all necessary money and will guarantee to meet him at the date specified.
